DATA PROTECTION LEGISLATION

Genesis Finance complies with the Data Protection Legislation, which lays down a set of standards that must be followed whenever personal information is processed. The Data Protection Legislation also gives individuals (known as Data Subjects) a number of rights.

You have the right to move, copy or transfer certain personal data. Also known as 'data portability'. This gives you the right to have certain parts of the data we hold on you transferred to you.

WHEN DO I NEED TO MAKE A DATA PORTABILITY REQUEST?

At Genesis Finance, we will provide you with the information in a machine readable format for you to pass onto whoever you would like.

Please note that this right is different from the right of access (see Subject Access Request), and that the types of data you can obtain under these two separate rights may be different. You are not able to obtain through the data portability right all of the personal data that you can obtain through the right of access.

WHAT DO I HAVE TO DO IF I WANT TO MAKE A DATA PORTABILITY REQUEST?

If you want to make a data portability request, you must put your request in writing. You can either complete the attached application form or send us a letter. If you put your request in a letter, you should include the following information:

- Your full name, date of birth and address
- It would be useful if you could provide us with a daytime telephone number in case we need to contact you to discuss your request
- Email address so the encrypted data file can be sent to you

You should send your completed form or letter to: Customer Services, Genesis Finance, 86 Station Road, Redhill RH1 1SR.
